 WLTP figures shown are for comparison pruposes and should only be compared to the fuel consumption and CO_2 values of other vans tested to the same technical standard. The fuel consumption achieved, and CO_2 produced, in real world conditions will depend upon a number of factors including, but not limited to: the accessories fitted (pre and post registration); variations in weather; driving styles and vehicle load. The WLTP (Worldwide Harmonised Light Vehicles Test Procedure) is used to measure fuel consumption and CO_2 figures.

CO_2 figures above are for a standard vehicle without any additional optional equipment. The addition of optional extras could increase the certified CO_2 emission output.

 Figures shown are for comparison pruposes and should only be compared to the fuel consumption and CO_2 values of other vans tested to the same technical standard. The fuel consumption achieved, and CO_2 produced, in real world conditions will depend upon a number of factors including, but not limited to: the accessories fitted (pre and post registration); variations in weather; driving styles and vehicle load. The WLTP (Worldwide Harmonised Light Vehicles Test Procedure) is used to measure fuel consumption and CO_2 figures.

CO_2 figures above are for a standard vehicle without any additional optional equipment. The addition of optional extras could increase the certified CO_2 emission output.

≠ Maximum indicative payload is calculated as the difference between GVW and kerb weight. However, due to manufacturing tolerences and differences in the specification of UK vehicles, the mass in service figure provides a closer indication of the vehicle weight and therefore enables a more realistic payload to be calculated. An individual vehicle must be weighed to establish the exact kerb weight and payload applicable to that vehicle. It is the responsibility of the driver to ensure the vehicle is operated within the legal limits.

[1] Maximum allowable payload. Exact value varies depending on specification of completed vehicle.

[2] Floor cabs cannot be used for Tippers or Dropsides. They can only be used for vehicles with a completely enclosed box body.

[3] On Back to Back Cab, until further notice, AL-KO are unable to provide a chassis equipped with ESC for any wheelbase greater than 4,400mm or for a tandem rear axle (regardless of wheelbase length).

[4] Please note: there may be a +/- 5% variance in payload of these models, due to natural variations in the raw materials used.
